There's No Business Like Snow Business.

What could be scarier than the 'Winter of 2008'?
How about the Indie Feature "Scarce"?

Filmed in Collingwood during the coldest winter in thirty years, "Scarce" tells the tale of a trio of Snowboarders trying to survive the cannibalistic intents of a demented duo living in a rundown lodge in the backwoods of Pennsylvania.

Join us as Bloodlife Films Producer / Directors John Geddes and Jesse T. Cook, and DP John LeSavage review clips from their latest feature, and discuss why they chose to capture the blood and gore of a classic horror movie on film in the Canadian North.
