LA GUILDE CANADIENNE DES RÉALISATEURS

2006 DGC AWARDS

Meet the Directors

Exploring the art and craft of filmmaking with award-winning Canadian directors

Each year, the Directors Guild of Canada honours an impressive list of Canadian film and television directors at its annual DGC Awards.

To celebrate, the DGC brings to you an evening of discussion on the art and craft of filmmaking with several of these nominated directors. This is a unique opportunity to catch a rare, inside glimpse into the filmmaking process and hear from some of Canada's best directors.

This year, the panel, moderated by director Michael Kennedy, includes:

Atom Egoyan, Where the Truth Lies

Don McBrearty, Terry

Tim Southam, One Dead Indian

Gary Yates, Niagara Motel

A clip from each director's nominated film will be shown, then Michael Kennedy will guide a discussion with each director to illuminate the challenges in directing the scene, its importance to the film and his directing philosophy.

Where: Eaton Lecture Theatre, Rogers Communications Centre, Gould and Church, Ryerson University

When: 7:00 pm, Friday, October 13, 2006

This is a FREE session brought to you by the Directors Guild of Canada and the DGC Awards.

Seating is limited, so rsvp to awards@dgc.ca to reserve your seat.
