

Celebrating 10 YEARS of developing Canadian talent...

WIDC 2007: Led by internationally acclaimed writer/director Lea Pool (The Blue Butterfly, Emporte-moi).

Working with professionals from across the country take creative risks and test original material in a safe learning environment.

Director deadline: September 30th
Actor / Crew deadline: October 31st
www.creativewomenworkshops.com
604-913-0747 or toll free 1-877-913-0747

There are currently openings for Mentors in the following areas: Director of Photography, Editor, Production Designer/Art Director, Sound Designer and Production Sound Supervisor. Contact Carol Whiteman, carol@creativewomenworkshops.com if you are interested.

A little DGC, Ontario member / WIDC Alumnae News...

In June 2005, Annie Bradley was awarded the @Wallace Studios WIDC Alumnae Award. Stated Annie, It "is a great honour to me, and I proudly share this award with the very talented Sarah Michelle Brown." Annie's portion of the award provides her with $6000.00 in services towards her next dramatic project "Fran, Henry, A Table and A Gun" written by Kathryn Mockler, a 2005 Writer Resident at the CFC.

Teresa Hannigan's OMDC Calling Card short film, "Snapshots for Henry" which she workshopped at WIDC, had its world premiere at WorldFest in Houston April 2006 and is screening at other venues now.