

Women in Film and Television - Toronto announces 2008 Feature Film Writing Program and Women Writers Workshop

(TORONTO – Wednesday, May 21, 2008) WIFT-T is pleased to announce the 2008 Feature Film Writing Workshop and the Women Writers Workshop.

The Feature Film Writing Program is a two module program. The first module will provide an introduction to the major elements of Feature Film Screenwriting, including the development stages of a screenplay. The second module will provide an in-depth analysis of the major elements of feature film screenwriting. The workshop includes a complete breakdown and analysis of a single film. Both modules can be taken individually.

Instructor: Elke Town, Story Editor Consultant, Storyworks (click for bio)

The Women Writers Workshop will follow the first, emerging module of the Feature Film Writing Program. Developed for emerging to intermediate women screenwriters who have a treatment or first draft, it will work toward the development of their next draft of a feature script.
